FATHER'S REFLECTION FOR THIS WEEK

Christ has revealed himself as being meek and humble of heart. He would like this meek and humble Spirit to dwell in us. This Spirit manifests itself in the love of God and neighbors, and helps us to carry our daily crosses with the hope of securing the Kingdom of the Father in Heaven. He said, "Come to me". May we accept this invitation because Christ has an immeasurable love for us, and His Spirit helps us with the grace that will make our crosses light, or to carry our crosses no matter how heavy they might be.
