FATHER'S REFLECTION FOR THIS WEEK

Today's first reading echoes the importance of HOSPITALITY, which is made clearer in the gospel that concludes St. Mathew's missionary discourse. Just like God is hospitable to us, we need to accept one another and try our best to heal the wounds of division in our families and communities, and see others as brothers and sisters in the one family of God. This might be a day to pray for terrorists, so that they will understand that our beautiful universe is not a place for killers, but a place for hospitality. God bless you.
