FATHER'S REFLECTION: 26th Sunday A

True obedience is expressed by deeds and not by words; as we usually say, "action speaks louder than words." The first son in today's parable probably refers to those who never cared about doing God's will but later repent and do God's will and will be granted eternal reward. The second son probably refers those who are Christians in name or want to be known as children of God but care less about the doing the will of God.
