FATHER'S REFLECTION: Easter Sunday

"We are an Easter people, and Alleluia is our song," said St. Augustine and reechoed by St. John Paul II, when he said, "Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song". Christ left the glories of heaven and came into the world and pitched his tent among human beings. After showing us the way to heaven, He destroyed the shackles of death so that through His death and resurrection death will no longer have power us if we do the will of God. We claim the Easter joy by joining Mother Mary to say, "Be it done to me according to thy will," so that in all things the will of God will be done. It is the fundamental belief that makes us live our lives like images of God so that people will experience God in our compassion and care of one another. It is in such actions that we show that we are an Easter people who want to share the Easter joy with others, for we are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song. HAPPY EASTER!!!
